TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE

2003-2004

DR. DOROTHY COWSER-YANCY
PRESIDENT JOHNSON C SMITH UNIVERSITY

WORDS OF EXPRESSION

To the Class of 2004:

Greetings!

With pleasure and pride, I extend best wishes to the Class of 2004. This pictorial depicts the chronology of your preparation, growth and maturity as campus citizens. I have watched with pride the increased maturity and sense of purpose developed in the student body as it moved about the campus, serving in various capacities of increasing trust and responsibility.

Johnson C. Smith University is committed to its legacy of excellence so that as you take your rightful places in a complex society, you will have been equipped to make informed choices that enable you to make a life as well as make a living. You are prepared to make significant contributions to mankind and to continue the noble heritage of your Alma Mater.

So as you embark upon the next phase of your journey, this pictorial will be a constant reminder of your years spent here as part of the Johnson C. Smith University family.

Sincerely,

THE HISTORY OF JCSU

In 1867, the Rev. S.C. Alexander and the Rev. W. L. Miller saw the need to establish an institution in this section of the South. On April 7, 1867, at a meeting of the Catawba Presbytery in the old Charlotte Presbyterian Church, the movement for the school was formally inaugurated, and these two ministers were elected as teachers.

Mrs. Mary D. Biddle, an excellent churchwoman of Philadelphia, PA, who, through appeals in one of the church papers, pledged $1,400 to the school. In appreciation of this first and generous contribution, friends requested Mrs. Biddle to name the newly established school after her late husband, Major Henry Biddle. From 1867 to 1876, the school was named Biddle Memorial Institute and chartered by the state legislature.

Colonel W. R. Myers, a wealthy citizen of Charlotte, donated the first eight acres of land for the school. In 1876, the charter was changed by the Legislature of the State of North Carolina, and the name became Biddle University. The institution operated under this name until 1923.

In 1883, a new university building was erected and served as the main administrative building for the University. Presently known as Biddle Memorial Hall, the building featured recitation rooms and a 600-seat audience chamber and an annex for the chapel.

From 1921 to 1922, the late Mrs. Jane Berry Smith, of Pittsburgh, PA, gave funds to build a theological dormitory, a science hall, a teachers' cottage and a memorial gate. In addition, she provided a handsome endowment for the institution in memory of her late husband Johnson C. Smith. In recognition of these generous benefactions, the Board of Trustees voted to change the name of the institution to Johnson C. Smith University (JCSU). The charter of the school, accordingly, was amended on March 1, 1923, by the Legislature of the State of North Carolina. From 1923 until her death in October 1929, Mrs. Smith gave funds for five more buildings, including a campus church.

From 1924 to 1925, the University was further strengthened by a substantial provision from James B. Duke, a wealthy businessman of Somerville, NJ. In the authorization of the establishment of the Duke Endowment on December 11, 1924, JCSU was included as one of the beneficiaries. Through the years, the Duke Endowment has been of inestimable value to the continued development of the University.

Also, in 1924, JCSU was recognized as a four-year college by the North Carolina State Board of Education. In 1929, the high school department was discontinued, and the standard program was restricted to a college of liberal arts and sciences and a theological department.

In 1932, the University's charter was amended, providing for the admission of women to the senior division. The 65-year-old institution for men then became partially coeducational.

In 1938, the institution attained the status of an independent college, affiliated with the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, reporting to the General Assembly through the Board of Christian Education.

The first residence hall for women, named in memory of James B. Duke, was dedicated in 1940. In 1941, women were admitted to the freshman class. When the Diamond Jubilee was celebrated in 1942, the University was a fully coeducational institution.

JCSU joined the United Negro College Fund in 1944. This fund was organized primarily to help church-related schools of higher learning to revamp their training programs, to expand their plants, to promote faculty growth, and to create new areas of service. The institution's membership in the fund began to bear fruit immediately.

In November 1955, the Henry Lawrence McCrorey Theological Hall was dedicated and provided a new home for the 88 year-old Seminary and its library. This new facility also provided space for a small chapel, classrooms, and offices. In 1969, the theological department moved from Charlotte, NC to Atlanta, GA, and became a part of the Interdenominational Theological Center. McCrorey Hall is now a classroom building for religious education, philosophy, sociology, and other academic areas.

ALMA MATER

Words by George Leonard Allen

Music by R. Tate

I

We love Thee Smith with all our hearts!!

To Thee we'll ever be true

And in the light of truth and right

Hold high the Gold and Blue

Refrain:

Proudly we hail thy name, our Alma Mater,

Old S.U. Johnson C. Smith, our own!

Our hope, our guiding star, our light unfailing

Pride of our loyal hearts, we'll love and honor thee

Our whole life through

On, ever on! Dear old J.C.S.U

II

Fair Smith, on earth we roam.

Send forth thy constant ray

And let it beam with steadfast gleam

To lead us o'er Life's way.

The 2005-2004 Yearbook Staff

Dedicates this book to

Le Tim Harris

"Ducie"

Sunrise October 2, 1979

Sunset June 11, 2005

Le Tim "Ducie" Harris as he was affectionately called by all his family and friends, died in Shreveport, L.A. on June 11, 2005. "Ducie" born and raised in Columbus, G.C. was a senior at Smith and was majoring in Business Management. In the fall of 2001 "Ducie" and his group Met Lyfe performed during the homecoming Hip Hop concert.

"Ducie" leaves to mourn one son Elijah Latimer and a host of relatives and friends. In one of his last poems he stated, "When I die dog, I don't want to cry...Cause you can hold on for so long, but soon you gotta let go." (Christian Toyner, Newspaper Staff)

And God shall wipe away all tears from their eyes, and there shall be no more death...neither shall there be anymore pain.

Time Is Of The Essence

What comes to mind when you hear the phrase "Time is of the Essence?" The yearbook staff chose this theme because we feel that each person needs to take advantage of there college experience. When it is all said and done, you would not want to look back and say "I could have, should have, and would have if I only had the time". The time is now to make decisions and plan for what you want after departing from JCSU. Upon graduation, you only have three choices; graduate school, work force, or doing nothing with your degree. So take advantage of your college experience while there is still time...."Time is of the Essence!"

We Made It!!

We Survived!!

Freshmen

A collage of 18 black and white photographs capturing various moments of student life. The images are arranged in a grid-like fashion, with some overlapping. The photos depict students in different environments: social gatherings, outdoor activities, academic settings, and candid moments. Key scenes include a student drinking from a cup, a group of students standing together, students sitting on a bench, a couple kissing, students in a classroom, and students walking outdoors. The overall tone is candid and celebratory, showcasing the diverse experiences of the student body.

~A good friend is someone to do nothing much with and find "nothing much" so much fun.

A good friend is talking and talking about everything under the sun.

*A good friend is someone who really is glad when you've worked for and won a success,
Someone you don't have to be on your guard with

KENYA LANICE STARKS

"A Virtuous Woman"

Kenya Lanice Starks

A virtuous woman is hard to find, but when this woman is found she is a treasure to behold. Her personality is vibrant, radiant, and uplifting. She has a humble spirit, a mind to succeed in everything she does, and a heart full of compassion. Fearfully, wonderfully, and uniquely made, Miss Kenya Lanice Starks truly embodies the description of a virtuous woman.

Kenya is a native of Hyattsville, MD and she is the daughter of Mrs. Sophia Starks and Mr. Eliga Starks. Her educational journey began at a private school, where she received her foundation, and continued through middle and high school. She attended High Point High School in Beltsville, MD. Kenya was very involved and graduated with honors.

The ultimate distinction of greatness is often identified by one who goes above and beyond that which is expected of them. This distinction is also identified by one who strives for excellence everyday. Miss Kenya has been able to exemplify this ultimate distinction because of her strong spiritual background, continued family support, and a passion to succeed. To continue being a distinct person of greatness she follows God's direction, tries her best to excel in her daily tasks, and strives to achieve her goals. As an aspiring student leader, Kenya has maintained a 3.0 GPA in the Honors College program at Johnson C. Smith University. She is a senior Social Work major, who has been on the Dean's list. She has been a Duke Endowed Scholar and a recipient of various scholarship awards. Upon graduation Kenya plans to attend graduate school and obtain her Masters in Social Work. Her ultimate goal is to own one of the most prominent social work firms that will globally cater to the needs of everyone.

During Kenya's tenure at Johnson C. Smith University she has been very actively involved on this family-oriented campus. She has held various leadership positions, which include, but are not limited to, being Miss Duke Hall, Miss Black & Gold, a Daniel J. Sanders Leadership Institute Leader, an Upward Bound Mentor, a member and business manager of the Johnson C. Smith University Concert Choir, and a Lyceum Committee member. She has been a member and treasurer of Simply Fabulous Dance Team, a member and Co-Chairperson of the Precious Jewels of Christ Dance ministry, a member of the Campus Ministry Program, Assistant to the Chaplain, a member of Fa-Si-Go Inc, Modeling Troupe and a potential member of the DC Metro Club.

Kenya Lanice Starks is an excellent example of a shining star. She accredits all of her achievements and success to God above and the guidance of her mother and father. If it had not been for the Lord on her side she would not be here today. From the bottom of her heart and the depths of her soul she expresses her sincere gratitude to those who have been very instrumental in helping Kenya get to where she is today. Kenya challenges everyone to reach for the stars, conquer your fears, strive to be all that you can be, and never give up on your hopes and dreams. Always remember that nothing is impossible with God. If you have faith the size of a mustard seed you can do anything.

First Attendant Miss Rashanda Lynette Butler

Rashanda Lynette Butler is a senior attending Johnson C. Smith University, majoring in the field of Social Work. Rashanda currently resides in Temple Hills, Maryland and is a native of Washington, DC. She is one of four daughters of Velma & Bob Floyd. At Johnson C. Smith University, Rashanda is currently President of both the Social Work Club and New Residence Hall Council, member of the Honors College, Peer Educators (SWARM) Student's Work-A-Round Mission, Pre Alumni Council and serves as a Judiciary Board Member. Rashanda is also a mentor and tutor for both the Math Lab Department under the Teaching & Learning Center, Student Support Services and with The Big Brothers Big Sisters Program of Greater Charlotte. Rashanda was also awarded an internship with the United States Department of Agriculture in Washington, DC, and has received numerous recognitions on campus and in her surrounding community.

Upon graduation, Rashanda plans to attend graduate school and obtain a masters degree in Social Work. She hopes to one day establish her very own Group Home for adolescent women and children. Rashanda gives all praise, honor, and glory to her heavenly father for the many blessings that he has poured upon her life. Rashanda's motto in life is "The Best Is Yet To Come!"

Second Attendant Miss Kerri Christina Legette

Kerri Legette a woman, "dedicated" and a sincere ambition to service her peers at Johnson C. Smith University, was born on August 30, 1982 in Columbia South Carolina. She is the daughter of Cheryl Corbin Legette-Murphy and the Late Leroy Murphy Jr. In 2000, she graduated from W.D. Keenan High School where she was at the top of her class. During that time, Kerri developed a sense of duty to serve all needs of life while at the same time fulfilling her lifelong ambition to become a United States Marshall. She came to Johnson C. Smith University in the fall of 2000 and is a Criminal Justice major. She plans to attend graduate school and receive her Masters in Criminal Justice at Johnson C. Smith University. Kerri has been active in various activities. She is an active member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc. Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity, Girl Scouts of America, the National Fraternity of College Women's Clubs, The JCSU Womens Bowling Team, JCSU Womens Tennis Team, The JAHOD Mentoring Program and the Johnson C. Smith University, Center for Leadership. She has been proud to serve as Vice Coordinator of the Religious Life Program for two years, as well as a Student Organizer, Leader SOB for the last two years. She has also been a member of the NACCP, The R.W.D. Gospel Choir, The Criminal Justice Association and served as Public Relations for the Student Government Association for the 2002-2003 school year. Captain of the JCSU Womens Tennis Team 2002-2003 & 2003-2004. Vice President and former JAH Representative for the Student Athletic Advisory Committee and the Greenfield Hall Council 2nd floor Representative. Kerri has been able to be active in all of these ways while still maintaining the purpose for a university to get an education with high academic achievement. During her tenure at Johnson C. Smith University, Kerri has maintained a 3.0 GPA as well as remaining in the Dean's List for three years. She has also appeared in the National Dean's List Publication for the last two years. Kerri Legette a woman, who continues to leave a legacy of hard work, dedication, school spirit, and community service.

Golden Bulls Athletics

This is the year of the "BULL". Johnson C. Smith's athletics are all about taking care of business in the 2003-2004 school year. The Golden Bulls are taking no hostages and leaving no witnesses as they put JC Smith on the map.

Golden Bulls Football

Golden Bulls Football

The Golden Bulls Football team completed the 2003 football season with a 1-9 record and 1-6 CIAA record. The Bulls played 9 home games to their line-up this season. They played Morehouse College of Atlanta in Georgia. Although the Bulls were not victorious the support from fans was tremendous. The ending score of that game was 21-39. However the Bulls did not let them down themselves at this year's homecoming by defeating Lenoir-Rhyne College. The roster of 2003 is as follows:

GREEKDOM

Johnson C. Smith University National Pan-Hellenic Council

The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated (NPHC) is currently composed of nine (9) International Greek letter Sororities and Fraternities: Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc., Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc., Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc., Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc., Iota Phi Theta Fraternity, Inc., Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc., Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority, Inc., Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc., and Omega Psi Phi Fraternity, Inc. NPHC promotes interaction through forums, meetings and other mediums for the exchange of information and engages in cooperative programming and initiatives through various activities and functions.

On May 10, 1930, on the campus of Howard University, in Washington DC, the National Pan-Hellenic Council was formed as a permanent organization with the following charter members: Omega Psi Phi and Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternities, and Alpha Kappa Alpha, Delta Sigma Theta and Zeta Phi Beta Sororities. In 1931, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority joined the Council. Sigma Gamma Rho Sorority joined in 1937 and Iota Phi Theta Fraternity joined the list of member organizations in 1949.

The stated purpose and mission of the organization in 1930 was "Unanimity of thought and action as far as possible in the conduct of Greek letter collegiate fraternities and sororities, and to consider problems of mutual interest to its member organizations." Early in 1937, the organization was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois and became known as "The National Pan-Hellenic Council, Incorporated."

Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity Inc.

History: Since its founding on December 4, 1906, Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. has supplied voice and vision to the struggle of African-Americans and people of color around the world.

Alpha Phi Alpha, the first intercollegiate Greek-letter fraternity established for African-Americans, was founded at Cornell University in Ithaca, New York by seven college men who recognized the need for a strong bond of Brotherhood among African descendants in this country. The visionary founders, known as the "Jewels" of the Fraternity, are Henry Arthur Callis, Charles Henry Chapman, Eugene Kinckle Jones, George Biddle Kelley, Nathaniel Allison Murray, Robert Harold Ogile, and Vertner Woodson Tandy. ly leaders of the Fraternity succeeded in laying a firm foundation for Alpha Phi Alpha's principles of scholarship, fellowship, good character, and the uplifting of humanity.

The Alpha Omicron Chapter was founded May 4, 1923 on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte, North Carolina. It is the oldest chapter in North and South Carolina. We are known as the "Mother Chapter of the Carolinas"! The brothers of AO are known for their outstanding leadership qualities, good looks, and fierce stepping ability throughout the Frat. The FIRE and ICE chapter believes in always being First of ALL in everything we do! We always hold up the LIGHT!

HOUSE OF ALPHA

Author: bro. Earnest P. Brown

GOODWILL IS THE MONARCH OF THIS HOUSE, MEN UNACQUAINTED, ENTER, SHAKE HANDS, EXCHANGE GREETINGS AND DEPART FRIENDS. CORDIALITY EXISTS AMONG ALL WHO ABIDE WITHIN. I AM THE EMINENT EXPRESSION OF FRIENDSHIP. CHARACTER AND TEMPERAMENT CHANGE UNDER MY DOMINANT POWER.. LIVES ONCE TOUCHED BY ME BECOME TUNED AND ARE THEREAFTER AMIABLE, KINDLY, AND FRATERNAL.

I INSPIRE THE MUSICIAN TO PLAY NOBLE SENTIMENTS AND ASSIST THE CHEMIST TO CONVERT UNGENEROUS PERSONALITIES INTO INDIVIDUALS OF GREAT WORTH. I DESTROY IGNOBLE IMPULSES. I CONSTANTLY INVOKE PRINCIPLES WHICH MAKE FOR COMMON BROTHERHOOD AND THE ECHO RESOUNDS IN ALL COMMUNITIES AND PRINCELY MEN ARE THEREBY RECOGNIZED. EDUCATION,

HEALTH, MUSIC, ENCOURAGEMENT, SYMPATHY, LAUGHTER, ALL THESE ARE SPECIES OF INTEREST GIVEN OF SELF INVESTED CAPITAL. TIRED MOMENTS FIND ME A DELIGHTFUL TREAT, HOURS OF SORROW, A SHRINE OF UNDERSTANDING, AT ALL TIMES I AM FAITHFUL TO THE CREED OF COMPANIONSHIP, TO A FEW, I AM THE CASTLE OF DREAMS, AMBITIOUS, SUCCESSFUL, HOPEFUL DREAMS. TO MANY, I AM THE POETIC PLACE WHERE HUMAN FEELING IS RHYMED TO CELESTIAL MOTIVES; TO THE GREAT MAJORITY, I AM THE TREASURY OF GOOD FELLOWSHIP

IN FACT, I AM THE COLLEGE OF FRIENDSHIP; THE UNIVERSITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE; THE SCHOOL FOR THE BETTER MAKING OF MEN.

Bloody RHO
Chapter

Kappa Alpha Bi Fraternity . Inc.

On January 5, 1911, 10 students at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana gave birth to a dream. Elder Watson Diggs, Ezra D. Alexander, Byron K. Armstrong, Henry T. Asher, Marcus Peter Blakemore, Paul W. Caine, George Edmonds, Guy L. Grant, Edward G. Irvin, and John Milton Lee founded a fraternity called Kappa Alpha Nu. The purpose of this fraternity was a need for the Black students at Indiana University to have support and camaraderie as there was no support for them among the other students. Kappa Alpha Nu did not warm over the principles or practices of other organizations. This Fraternity would seek to raise the sights of black youths and stimulate them to accomplishments higher than might otherwise be realized or even imagined. On May 15, 1911, Kappa Alpha Nu became the first undergraduate college fraternity to be incorporated by blacks as a national body.

The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity to be leaders of our society. Each one of them possesses a strength or skill that will one day lead to his success.

The History of That Kappa KANE

Members of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity have always worn or carried canes since the beginning of the Fraternity in 1911. Although unintentional in its inception, this occurrence soon became an unofficial tradition of Kappa men, as Kappas have always strived to be noble and productive members of the community. The cane, being the symbol of a Gentleman who exhibits such characteristics, was then proudly adorned by members of the Fraternity. Earlier in the 20th century, new initiates of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc in Tennessee can be seen carrying their canes.

This type of display became commonplace up until the 1950's when Black Greek Letter Organizations, on an undergraduate level, began to practice what is known today as "Step Shows". Undergraduate members of Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity took part in the trade and soon incorporated the use of their favorite item, the cane, into the routine. This was something that spread to many undergraduate chapters during the 50's and 60's. Stepping was catching on at an accelerated rate among the African American fraternities and sororities during this time period.

Gamma Lambda Chapter Est. 1943

Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, Inc.

The sorority was founded January 13, 1913, by 22 extraordinary women on the campus of Howard University in Washington, D.C. The main objective of the sorority is to establish and maintain a high standard of morality and scholarship among women. The Gamma Lambda Chapter was chartered on November 23, 1943, it was the first greek sorority established on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. Today Gamma Lambda strives to fulfill the ideas and goals that were put into place by the eleven remarkable chapter members. The sorority Continues to provide community service activities as well as on campus workshops including Blood and Bone Marrow Drives, Habitat for Humanity, Walk West for Wellness, and the Big Sister Little Sister Mentoring Program. Gamma Lambda has successfully made the transistion into the new millennium with young ladies who uphold the ideas the our wonderful sorority was founded on. We are proud to serve the Johnson C. Smith Community through continuous

"Scholarship, Sisterhood, & Service"

The major programs of the Sorority are based upon the organization Five Point Thrust.

Intelligence Is The Torch of Wisdom

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc.

Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. was founded at Howard University in Washington, D.C., January 9, 1914, by three young African-American male students. The founders, Honorable A. Langston Taylor, Honorable Leonard F. Morse, and Honorable Charles I. Brown, wanted to organize a Greek letter fraternity that would truly exemplify the ideals of brotherhood, scholarship, and service.

The Alpha Epsilon Chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated was founded by twelve visionary students on October 27, 1927 here on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University. We have strived diligently to uphold and embody the ideas and ideals that our Fraternities honorable founders conceived.

Thy scattered sons with lofty hopes and aims, achieving greatness which the world proclaims, regarding life with tenderness sublime, and with design which knows no race or clime, appeals to selfish man to serve and love God's handiwork created from above; Phi Beta Sigma stands this test for years Supremely over blight and cringing fears. With unflinching will that cannot fail, the sacred cause advances to prevail. Give us the conscience staunch and spirit brave, to master stormy sea and angry wave, and as the curtain falls o'er this brief life, we'll march triumphant from this din and strife.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority was founded on January 16, 1920 on the campus of Howard University in Washington D.C. by five coeds. Arizona Cleaver, Pearl Neal, Myrtle Tyler, Viola Tyler and Fannie Pettie choose not to embrace the tenets of established black sororities, so they chartered Zeta Phi Beta Sorority to epitomize the highest standards of scholarship, promote community service, foster sisterhood, and exemplify the ideal of Finer Womanhood.

The Sorority was the first Greek-Letter organization to charter a chapter in Africa (1948); to form adult and youth auxiliary groups, the Amicae, Archonettes, Amicettes, and Pearlettes; and to be constitutionally bound to a brother group, Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Incorporated.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. encompasses nine regions. These regions are located throughout the continental United States, Alaska, Hawaii, The Bahamas, Eastern Caribbean Islands, West Africa and Germany. Zeta Phi Beta Sorority Inc. has over 100,000 members and is still growing!

Kappa Chapter was founded on November 26, 1946 on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University by five distinguished ladies, Marguerite Robinson, Saddle Crawford, Melvine James, Helen Kibbler and Sarah Schofield. And to this day, Kappa Chapter is the only Sorority on this campus that has a single Greek letter. In 1947, Kappa Chapter was awarded a plaque for having members with the highest scholastic average above all other Greek organizations on the campus of Johnson C. Smith University.

Sigma Gamma Rho

Sigma Gamma Rho is an international organization of high-achieving African American women. It was founded in 1911 at Howard University in Washington, D.C. The organization is dedicated to the advancement of the African American community through scholarship, service, and leadership. It is a member of the National Pan-Hellenic Council (NPHC) and the National Association of Black Greek Letter Organizations (NABGLO). The organization has a long history of excellence and is proud to be a part of the African American community.

Best All Around

Whether participating in the Miss JCSU coronation, doing community service, assisting faculty/staff or just hanging out between classes, every student contributes to student life at Johnson C. Smith University. While academics are the primary reason for our existence, the reputation of a school is not just built around the Dean's List and exam scores. The daily activities and special events also play a part in defining a school. Students had to make a statement while at work or in the community. Through the combined efforts of students and dedicated professors, much has been accomplished toward making JCSU the best university around.

The International

■ ■ ■ ■ Institute ■ ■ ■ ■ Of Sound

The JCSU family has the privilege to witness the baddest band across the land. Many eyes and not seen and ears have not heard the unique sounds of this wonderful sensation. With many early mornings and long nights of practice, this band developed sounds and a style that none can duplicate. There is no other like the IIOS.

Duncan C. Gray, Director of Bands

"I am viewing history: the authenticator of where we have been and the indicator of where we are going. From the "Dirty 30" to the 130 members of the "International Institute of Sound", the IIOS has been placed in the history of Johnson C. Smith University."

Thanks for the opportunity..."

WHO HAS BEEN YOUR MOST

My Most positive influences in my life are my mother and my grandmothers because they taught me that no matter what challenges you may have you can overcome anything overcome anything with God on your side.

Chanel Hunter
Freshmen

My mom Patricia Ann Mayo Hughes is my most positive influence. She has really been a leader and motivational force in my life. She helped me to see myself, which is the hardest thing for anyone to do. To want more out of life and really have the desire to help all of those around me. She leads by example and has always been as honest as possible with me about everything.

Tyrell Hughes
Junior

My most positive influence in my life is my mother and father. My mother is strong, independent, single parent. She has shown me that you can achieve anything no matter what the circumstances are. My father has just shown me what a real man is and is always on top of his game (life).

Erika Johnson
Senior

My most positive influence is my mother Rosalyn Denise Reid because if it wasn't for her I wouldn't be the man that I am today. I look up to my mother because she is such a strong woman and really helps keep me focused.

Brewington Reid
Sophomore

POSITIVE INFLUENCE AND WHY?

My sister because through all endeavours she is there supporting, motivating, encouraging me to do the best I can.

Patricia Gillespie
Senior

My sister because she is educated and successful. She teaches me things I don't know and things I should know.

Alexcia Harris
Freshmen

My biggest influence is my grandmother Annie Britt, because she showed me that caring for people and being responsible was not a crime. She was the first person that taught me that every good deed doesn't deserve a prize. I love my Nana.

Tanecia Britt
Sophomore

The Road Was Long and Hard But We Made It!!!

Editors Note

Thank you so much for believing in me. To my family and friends, who were truly there for me through my whole college experience. I have learned a lot these past four years by being here at Johnson C. Smith University.

Grandma -It has been hard but we got through it, you weren't able to do a lot but for what you have done I thank you for. I love you forever!! Momma you gave me life, thank you! To My aunt's Buffy, Mary, Millie and Tan you believed in me, thank you for that. To Cooke thanks for encouraging me to continue on. My Church family at home and in Charlotte I couldn't have made it without you. To my aunt Rhonda for telling me something I will never forget. "it's not who you are but whose you are"
THANK YOU SO MUCH!!!!

Lenisha you're supposed to be paying attention!!

All this work has me tired, i'm taking a nap!!!

Don't Be Shy Kim!!!

We,
the Class of 2004,
being of sound
mind and body....

Whether used as an adjective, adverb, or noun, the word “best” has everything to do with achieving excellence. This should be the goal of every student. From their first day on the campus, the class of ‘04 were stimulated to do their best in all areas of study. In classes, Professors urged students to put forth their best efforts in their studies. Students were also encouraged to do their best while participating in extracurricular activities, competitions, and/or athletics. Through these various efforts, the class of ‘04 leave a legacy of excellence as an incentive for those who follow them. Here, they leave all of their thoughts and words of encouragement to those that have journeyed with them and those that will follow in their footsteps.

Farewell.....

"My dear JSCU,

I, Yolina Reynolds, will sincerely miss you

My journeys through life will never be the same

Because of your hand in wisdom and knowledge you help me to gain

And strength you help me to find

That proved true friendships that merged love to bind."

Thank you, Communication Arts Department for giving me a reason to be who I am today and guiding me toward my destiny. Professor Howard, Fredrick, Cole, Fitch, Henry, Burton and Purgason, thank you for teaching me the ropes of the business and the strengths how to stay in it. Thanks to Mrs. Caroline Elimimian for all of your "motherly" support and advice. To the Brothers of Blue and White, thank you for allowing me to be Miss 1914 and a little sister to you all. I leave behind my artistic thoughts and projects to the Boston crew of the Comm. Arts Dept., Big Lex and Nakia. To my Connecticut crew, stay real to your self and keep proving that the sky is the limit.

"I can do all things though Christ which strengtheneth me".

-Philippians 4:13

To my professor's I leave my appreciation and gratitude. To the underclassmen from Pittsburgh I leave sincere hopes for all safe trips back and fourth the stretch of I77, US19, and I79. Freshman, I leave my prayer's that you will begin your academic career in a way that you will live to be proud of. Furthermore, to Johnson C. Smith University I leave a peace of my heart in exchange for steadfast growth, intellectual development, and liberal experiences. Finally, I leave my creativity and critical thinking skills to all the underclassman English and Education majors.

Sierra J. Davis

First and foremost I would like to thank God for giving me the opportunity to attend college for these four years. I would like to say thank you so much to my Grandma (Geneva) for being there and supporting me in all that I did and will continue to do. To Dean Patrick Day, you stuck behind me when times were the worse and I thank you for that. To Mrs. Yvonne Reed- Norris thank you for being my mother away from home and taking care of me financially. To my Pastor (Harvey Daniels) and my church family at home thanks for the calls, letters and donations to help me make it through these four years. To the Temple of Refuge (Pastor Kenneth Yelverton) thanks for making me feel welcomed and accepting me as your own while I was away from home. To Candice you left a great task for me thank you for being a friend. To Rashawn thanks for being a big brother and giving me advice when I needed it. To Thomas Rivers you have endured a lot these years, I'm glad you hung in there. To my Big Sister Shereen thank you for taking me in when I was a freshman and continuing to be my friend. To Bridgette (LG) thanks for the laughs you silly girl!! To Tiffany Williams, the first real friend I found at Smith, you paved the way for me, and for that I am grateful. To Quintel, even though you don't go here, you were there for me late at night when I needed someone to talk too. To Lauren "Ashley" Smith thanks for the advice, the laughs, and the friend that you have been to me. To Mrs. Kelly Shealy thank you so much, for all the sacrifices that you made and the time and effort that you put toward getting this yearbook out. To the yearbook staff thanks for your dedication and hard working in completing the task that was set before you. To anyone that I have left out thank you so much for the impact that you made in my life.

Toccara D.Chambers

I, Michael Posey (Posey, Da Chef, Mr. Michael, Unbreakable), being of sound mind, body, and soul, will the following items to the following people:

I give my extra large, infamous room to Alexis Bibbs. Man make sure u hold it down after I'm gone, that room has some memories good and bad. I give my cooking utensils and spices to Ebonee, cuz you never ate anything I made so now you can make it YOURSELF!!! I give my hair to Demond, cuz you simply are going bald too young son, lol. I leave my work ethic and perspective on life and all it entails to the class of 2005, keep ya heads up and work hard, cuz life don't get much easier after college.

To the Class of 2004,

We are venturing into a new sector in our lives and we will never be the same. It is important to know that in our paths we will be faced with adversity as well as disappointments. I wish you all success and pray that everyone accomplishes their goals!

"The ultimate measure of a man is not where he stands in moments of comfort and convenience, but where he stands at times of challenge and Controversy." –Martin Luther King, Jr.

Love,

Rhea A. Golden

The Lord Has Blessed Me To Become A Success and Graduate.

Even though People often tried to Test, I still did my best to shine through and through. Thanks to everyone who was a part of what I wanted to do. A determined graduate whos journey has really just begun, I plan to be one day be a positive Black figure in the news. Thanks to my friends and some associates for staying true. And to my enemies, I still have nothing but love for you. You all have made me stronger and showed me how not to be like you. To those close to me, I promise to continue drawing, writing, and reading poetry until it pays my dues. Smith has only been the starting point and work will follow to graduate school. To the Class of 2004 Stay Up and I love you!

Tenisha Campbell

Smith is a place where you are forced to make decisions. The problem is, can you still love yourself after you've made one? Can you handle it if it is not the right decision? I found out that when you seek GOD 1st, regardless of what decisions you make, they will all work out for your good. Learn to "milk" every situation for what it is worth and move on.

Nayati Harris

I Shannon Kelli Watson being of sound mind and body and not in possession of any tangible items to leave behind, hereby bequeath the only thing I own, Memories and Knowledge, to my friends who have become my family.

I have to start by giving props to my Learning Communities FAM for being the foundation of my Smith memories. To My Left and Right, always remember to stay EnVogue and thanks for riding along on my emotional rollercoaster. To Chuck, Mr. Jones and the rest of the B.B., thanks for being the big brothers I needed to make me tougher. Janine and Velton, from one hood to the next we've held it down for ten years strong, we've made Wilkinsburg proud. Jigga, my.... Well I leave that part out, thanks for the ORT. Memories. K.S. don't forget to call me b4 you take out the trash. Lex, I'll see you at the Knife and Fork. Flomeke let nothing hold you down. Tory, I'll see you at the Dealership. Jazzy, I'll always hold it down for 314. To my Meantime In Between Time, remember there is no such thing as a waste of time, only lessons learned and memories to reflect upon.

And last but not least, My Namesake and J the two people that let me be me and love me anyway, know that your image of me is only what I can hope to be. We have been through so many things, most of which can't be discussed outside of us 3. Knowing the two of you has made me a better person. Mere words can not express my appreciation to you all for allowing me in your lives and letting me be your "psychologist". There will never be a time like this again and I am lucky to say that I have spent my time with the above individuals. I love you all, even the ones I couldn't list, more than you'll ever know.

Don't forget to meet me at the Excelsior for Homecoming 2013!!!!!!!

Out the door in 2004. Coming home in 2005. Serving my school as long as I am alive.
Keep On Keeping On

Maryam Thomas Muhammad

I Kerri Legette being of sound mind, body, and soul bequeath the following: To the Dominating Senior class of 2004 it has been a long journey. We have been through a lot of up's and down's as a class. We have grown from immature to mature adults in the short time of 4 years. I love you guys and I know that we will dominate and be successful wherever we go. To the junior class of 2005 I wish you much success in your senior year. To the sophomore class of 2006 it is time for you to step up to the plate and be all that you can be. To the freshman class of 2007 you have 3 more years left; live it up, have fun, remember your purpose, become great leaders, and make college worth your while. To the Women's tennis team: April, Natasha, Amber, and Lauren G. remember to move your feet and go for every ball. Keep up the good work. You are very talented young ladies that will win the championship every year. And remember that being a champion always comes with a price. To the members of the University Choir I know that you will always sound wonderful. Remember to take good care of you voices. To my people's on the Women's bowling team: Erica, Wanda, LaQuanda, Jamila, Lisa and Nubia, remember to bend those knees stretch out on the lanes. And always, always keep the team spirit. To my Devastating Sisters of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc., it has been a great journey and I love you very much. I wish you all the most success in the world after graduation. I know that we will do great things. To my brothers of Alpha Phi Omega always remember leadership, friendship and service. To the student orientation leaders; continue to leave the legacy that you do in building great leaders here at Johnson C. Smith University. Last but not least I would like say always remember that "Operation Graduation" IS NOT A GAME!!!! To anyone that I forgot I'm sorry. I wish you all the best and I'm out.

You may not like the game but you can't win it if you're not in it. Some people will do and say anything to get you down, but don't quit. Always remember, you're too talented to let someone's ignorance hold you back. Learn to avoid toxic people. Sometimes it's okay to be alone, especially if you're alone in the front leading and everyone else is following. Remember that those things that make you exceptional also make you alone.

Dasha Y. Brock

I, Rashawn Haskell, a resident of Eutawville, South Carolina by the way of Harlem, New York, being of sound, mind, body and soul would like to leave a few lines of wisdom. To all I have came in contact with, remember not to focus on those things in your surrounding but aim for those things not seen. Learn to encourage yourself when your back is against the wall; be real and know that "No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper" Isaiah 54:17. From Liston to New Res and then to Carter, I leave the willingness to adapt to the environment and not to be shaken. To the Infamous Alpha Epsilon chapter of Phi Beta Sigma Fraternity, Inc. remember, we have to continue to be models for all as we enter into the World. To the Illustrious Ladies of Kappa Chapter of Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, Inc. continue to demonstrate Finer Womanhood. To my spiritual buddies you know we have to P.U.S.H., for the worst is over and the best is yet to come!!! Nevertheless, Bridgette, Jarvis, Jonathan, and Latrese remember, we have to hold it down for the area. Hats off to Richard & Hattie Haskell (parents) for a job well done! God I thank you, love you and praise you! Called Created and Chosen

"My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness."

2 Corinthians 12:9

As I prepare myself to step out on a voyage beyond my belief, I take this time to reflect on the lessons I've learned during my matriculation at Johnson C. Smith University. With that said – I, Regina Felicia Neal, being of sound mind and body leave the following:

First to all those residents who made it from the 2nd floor of Myers Hall 2000-2001, I'm sure we all leave behind the constant fighting, the occasional prank from the males of Liston Hall, 1am fire drills, the glares of everyone in the lobby as you walk in a little later than you had expected to, the falling ceiling tiles, locked down kitchens, the sound of slippers dragging down the hallway at all hours of the night waking you up from the most peaceful sleep you'd ever had, and probably most of all, the unidentifiable objects found in our lavatories.

To the woman who personifies the meaning of a Southern Bell, I leave behind the endless amounts of counseling you gave simply by having a listening ear and a caring heart. Never lose your pride in small towns because that is what makes you a Black American Princess (BAPS).

To the man that I knew was something special on the day we met traveling to VCC almost 4 years ago, I leave our ridiculously long nightly conversations, unauthorized visits to room 211, arguments over any and everything, the poem "Just Keep on Going," and lastly my heart. You held it in the palms of your hands for so long that God only knows if we will ever realize India's "Truth." Always know who you are and whose you are and don't forget - you TOO know my number! Love You.

To the Fam-ettes (where ever you are): we did some dirt that the Lord knows we wish we could forget but, I must say, that dirt will forever keep us connected. I leave you karaoke night, facing off with the Fam on the yard, late night talks while taking down another's braids, and our entire freshman year because it was the most jam packed 8 months of my life.

To my bosom buddy from next door, I leave you outbursts of laughter, tear filled eyes, desperate cries for a "boo", and our obsessions with the Real World, American Idol, and Making the Band. Never let distance erase what we've shared... in 6 months, 2 years, or even a decade if you need a shoulder to cry on holla at me.

To the ladies I'd like to call "The Pretty Politicians" I leave excitement, hurt, fear, anxiety, love, strength, betrayal, forgiveness, and hope all balled up into one room with a blue stripe across the white wall and 22 hearts with good intentions.

I'd like to leave Marc Fuller the courage to go after what you want and don't forget to take your jokes with you. For Shanteeyah Hall, I leave the faith and patience to love those who hate you and to pray for those who tear you down. I leave "Meca n them" the appreciation of true friendship, never let folks break y'all apart. To Loren Webb, it is about you and Him and not you and them. To the PJOC mimes - it's all in your faces. To all the remaining members of the original CMP the faith to live life in spite of the obstacles you will face. To Mrs. Caldwell I leave all the facial expressions in the world because they could never articulate the influential guidance you have provided. And lastly, to those 10 women and my 1 corny brother whom I've spent endless credit hours with, the knowledge of protocol – it's all relative.

As I look back on all that I've pressed through,
I thank the Lord because without Him, what would I do?
Through a lens I see the world, refreshed and brand new
While the focus is much clearer thanks to Dear Ol' JCSU.

I, Kim Charlena Thomas, being of sound mind, body, and spirit would like to leave a few exceptional people some of my unique possessions. To, THE ONE WHO CHANGED MY VIEW ABOUT LIFE, I leave my LOVE, my HEART, and my MEMORIES, I don't know where to start I just know where I need to FINISH. I wish you the best of luck in the future and I hope you achieve all your goals in life. You will always hold a special place in my heart...take care love. To, Farah Lauture, I leave my ATTITUDE, we are alike in so many ways that's why we are such good friends. All I ask is that you do what you need to do in order to succeed in life and I'll see you when you graduate. LOVE YOU LIKE A SISTER...Take care and be good little girl...lol. To, Thasaian Jordan and Serena Morris, I leave my STRENGTH; remember "If you don't stand for something...you will fall for anything." Take care and If you ever need me I'll be a phone call away...To, Tamisha Vaughan, I leave my COMPUTER SKILLS, because everyone knows you need them...lol...I wish you the best of luck in the future and you are really something SPECIAL...PS: Don't hold me to that statement...but I'm really going to miss you. To, My DIRTY Ent. Family (Aaron, Jamar, Ben, and Sean), I leave the GOOD TIMES, I wish you guys the best. I hope you all get everything out of life. Remember, "THERE IS A FLAW...they don't ONE NIGHT them...they WIFE them...lol"...DIRTY Ent. WE ALL WE GOT! To, Tyrell Hughes and LaSherise Simpson, I leave my POWER, I'm really going to miss you guys...Tyrell thanks for listening to me... Re "Do You Know Me?"...lol...(I'm sorry) be good girl you have to hold it down for me in New Res and I guess you have to play Tyrell without me (lol)...To, Jarvis "RASHARD" Craig, I leave a BILL, I'm still waiting on YOUR REFUND...You owe me a lot! To, LaQuanda Higgins, I leave my MICKEY MOUSES, like I would really give them to you...AS IF...Take care and be good. To, Nubia Jones, I leave my THOUGHTS, you are one crazy JERSEY GIRL. Thanks for always helping me see the positive side to everything. YOU ARE THE BEST KID... and NEVER let anyone tell you DIFFERENT. I wish you the best of luck in the future...UMK...lol. To, the Bowling Team, I leave LUCK, hope next season is a better one. Ladies "WHAT DA HOOK GONE BE?"...that's me! To any that I may have forgotten, I apologize. Finally a quote to the class of 2005, "ONE MUST LIVE TO LEARN, AND THEN LEARN TO LIVE."

I, Jihad Muhammad, leave JCSU having gained more than I ever imagined possible. To all my family and friends, you guys are the reason that I work so hard and will be successful. I love you dearly. To my triplet brothers and sister who entered with me, we've been through a lot, but the real journey is just beginning. We'll enjoy the ride together like always. To the best roommate I could ever ask for; Robin you've grown to be like a brother to me. To my best friend here at JCSU, Patricia; I love you like a sister and I will always cherish our friendship. I have tried to leave JCSU in a better position than it was when I arrive. Only time will tell how successful I was; but I will always have love for dear old JCSU.

I, Shereen A. Kanoy being of sound mind and spirit give all glory and honor to Jesus Christ. "It is because He is that I am and because He is We are." I have come a long way and to this point I know it is only by grace I have made it. To Johnson C. Smith University I leave my love for others, joy from Christ and dedication to you set out to do or accomplish.

To my fellow educators: I leave a passion to teach and love for children. (Teaching is a highly esteemed profession and it takes a well-rounded, intelligent, and caring person to do it.) I leave Fabrese Logan endurance, patience, strength, courage, and wisdom. We belong right where God has our hearts, I leave Danielle Watson the children period; I just believe you will be an excellent teacher. To Thomas Rivers and Walter Hall: I leave the education of America. To my fellow true educators and teachers of tomorrow continue to love what you do and strive for excellence.

To my fellow choir members those old and new: I leave you a love for God and ministry through song. To Lorena Webb, I leave you all the drums in on this side of the world. To Janel: I leave you the smile to go along with the part in the song, and the trip to UNCC, you make the best of every situation especially out of that trip. To Tameca Henry I leave you a Praise ("You betta Praise Him!") To my lil brother Marcus: I leave you the love for music and I pray you will continue to allow the Lord to use you as you keep the choir moving in Jesus name. To Dania, Dawnita, and Maquita: I Leave you all the night at Chili's. To Renee: Lord Jesus, girl I leave you peace of mind and the title as official hostess of Smith. (smile) To Cemeka: I leave you a closer walk with thee, I know these years like most of us have been rough but we can say we made it ova! Glory!!!! I leave each of you all those mentioned and omitted a piece of my love for Christ and the ministry of singing for the Lord. I think I gained a new family here at Johnson C. Smith University.

To my little sisters: To Toya, I leave you the memories of P.J.O.C. and when it all began Toya, I leave you my jazziness!! To Toccara: I leave you all the talks about the "U know Who", the courage to go on against all odds, and all the hungry nights we spotted each other. To Rashanda: I leave you all the jokes you cracked on me and my room. (I apologize my room was never the Starbucks you so love to visit.)-smile, I leave you the word of God as your strength, and most of all I leave you my sense of Georgia-come visit one day. Rashanda, I have a lot to leave you. I don't know where to stop but I must stop soon but first I must leave you this one hilarious memory: When we including: Zakia, you and - Fabrese visited Two-way after dark: Rashanda and her loud mouth, all for stock-ings. To Zakia: I leave you the night at Red Lobster, "Virgin Drinks" and Cheese Bread will hold you until your plate arrive. Loretta, I leave you "Yolanda Adams"

To Precious Jewels of Christ Mimes: To Regina: I leave you the desire to help start the whole group up. Danielle Newsome, I leave you the ability to blossom and let the Lord come on in your life. Davenia, I leave you the power to get it right! (I wish you the best.) Chris Lewis: I leave you directions to the back of New Res(oh my goodness), Dania, I leave you the sassy mouth but yet the Lord for Christ, Janel Davis: I leave you the determination and the love for all you do, Ariel: I leave you the solo of "Prayer of Jabez"-we worked that and I felt the stage moving, Dora, I leave you the ability to get in where you fit in and the love you have for others, keep God first, To those who remain I leave this unique art form and awesome way of Praising God. Continue to keep the dream alive!

To a few good Men: Marc Fuller, Marcus Scurry, and Rashawn Haskell: I leave you all the ability to make a sista feel real good, the ability to be a good friend, the love for Christ, the individuality each of you possess. I leave Marc and Haskell the rear light, I pray each of you would keep in touch and continue with the purpose the Lord has called each of you to fulfill.

To an Old Roommate and Friend for Life: To Janaela L.G.L. Page I leave you the cat fights from my sophomore year, the ability to know when to stop and shut up, the love for children, the ability to love "others" in spite of their faults, and most of all I leave you a closer walk with Thee.

To my loving and God sent Parents: Last but not Least! I leave you all the long stories, the wash room, complaints of Smith, my long grocery list, and my grades I did it for us! I love you both with my heart and you all mean a lot to me more than you could ever know. I pray the Lord will keep us all as time goes on and His grace endureth forever.

I, Robin Phillips, being of sound mind and body, leave the following items, both physical and metaphysical to the following people who supercede the call of duty and make Johnson C. Smith University a better place: To the next senior class President I leave you the responsibility of being a leader who listens to the ideas of the class as well as your council, for "Knowledge speaks, but wisdom listens". To the Golden Bull Activities Committee, I leave my strength to fight for that which is beneficial to the student body, my love for my work, and my determination to always succeed. To the Class of 2007 (especially the "G-Unit" Green Group), as one of your SOL's, I leave to you the open doorway that was left to me and the freedom to step through it and fulfill all the possibilities of tomorrow. To the Honors College, I leave my suite of 3 years, the magnificent Suite C: home of the late night fights, drama, love, hate and everything in between, plus some good studying space! To the remaining students here at JCSU, I leave my determination to be an individual: Live your life so that no one can place you in a box with a label on it. I also leave you the will to grab hold of your dreams and hold on tight, the ride to the top is usually always bumpy! I love you JCSU, you're always in my heart!!

What doesn't kill you will only make you stronger. We have made it through these years, through happy times and times of turmoil, but we made it through nonetheless. Our lives can now begin, just never forget what has been and the experiences that helped us get to this point. Good luck in your lives and God bless.

Khairia Greenlee

It's finally time for me to say goodbye..

But I have to leave a few things in my memory...

My Class President Record : the most years of JCSU (3yrs.) Good Luck to all Leaders

My New Res. Room 119A..Treat it with care, It's a Special Room.

My Wendy's Uniform for those who need a job

Project H.O.M.E.- Helping Others through Minority Education...Continue helping the Homeless, it could be you tomorrow

My Heart: To everyone who helped me through these years...Professors, Financial Aid Office, Business Office, Facility Workers, Cafeteria Workers, Security & Friends My Memories: To the Underclassman, Have fun while you can, College Years are the Best Years

A Dollar: Keep passing it around for there is always someone who going to need it

C₆H₁₂O₆+6O₂ → 6CO₂+6H₂O+energy...To All Science Majors, Don't Give Up, This is only half the battle

My Strength: To those who have problems shaking off the haters...stop it!...They're here to make you stronger

And

My Eyes: For you all to see, JCSU isn't a bad place to be...You're still here!

This is Syreeta T. Baker leaving you a little something for your mind, "Me"!

I, Chrystal Eve Montgomery, of sound mind and body leave, Wanda Williams, all of the words of encouragement a motivational speaker should have. To Jamila Jenkins, all of the sarcastic remarks that were given to you throughout our time around each other. To the bowling team much much more success than what was made in the previous season and all of the laughs that were had. To Tiffany Butler the mentor and mentee love that we had. To Michelle Bond all the wonderful talks that we had and all of the smiles that we shared. To Johnson C. Smith University I leave all of my ups and downs, my smiles and tears, and the hope that this school will continue to strive for excellence.

I, Margaret Louise Gregg, being of sound mind and body do hereby bequeath some but not all of my knowledge (because I am going to need it) to Reginald Goins and Donna Paul. Always strive to be the best at all times and let nothing stand in your way. I want to thank all my professors who helped me to achieve my goals especially Dr. Forbes, Dr. Desai, Dr. Sunday, and Mr. T.

Wow it is year 2004 who would have thought the years would fly by so fast. I just want to thank all of you for taking the time to get to know me and blessing my life with your presence. I made so many friends while here and I just want to thank you all for everything you have done for me. To Thomas you have been a good friend to me represent Burke High School and Chucktown to the fullest. To Marcus Scurry thank you for all the encouragement. To Bridgette and Rashawn thank you for everything and thank you both for being my friend. Always keep God first in whatever you do and all things will just fall into place. To John you have taught me a lot and I thank you for being there when I needed someone to talk to. And to anyone I forgot blame it on my mind and not my heart. I want to thank my Mommy, Daddy, Sisters, Brother and my whole family for pushing me to be the best that I can be. I have the best parents in the world. To the Class of 2004 Peace Out and Holla At Your Girl. I Love You All. Be blessed and Keep God First in whatever you do.

Always remember where you came from and to give back to those in need. A good friend once told me that when you are down and out and feel like there is nothing left to live for always remember that there is someone else suffering worse than you are and that God will never put more on you than you can bear (thanks John). I just want to thank him for telling me that because it really helped me to get through my senior year. When you look at me you are looking at a miracle God has a plan for me and He has one for you too. Be Blessed and Be Safe One Love.

Philippians 4:13: I Can Do All Things Through Jesus Christ Who Strengthens Me!! Live by that and life will be so much easier.

See You at the Reunion.

Everybody Is Invited to My Wedding on May 10, 2004..

Only
the BEST!

Life is full of surprises, some good and some bad. It is easy to let experiences and situations bring you down, but don't get discouraged. You will have days that you just want to give up, and days that you think you really are not meant to be in college. When you do start to feel that way, remind yourself why you decided to do this in the first place. You will mess up, NO ONE is perfect, but if you hang in there and really try and put forth your best, then you can do what ever you please. Keep your priorities in order and don't forget to have fun. Best Wishes to everyone!

I, Marcus Shanar Scurry, being of exuberant body and phenomenal mind do hereby bequeath to my classmates of "04 the memories of good ole' JC. We have come a long way and nothing but good things await us!! To all of my many friends (too many to name) thanks for playing a huge part in my development as a person. To the original homies in the FAM(B-nasty, Jay-Lex, Redd, Skittlez, Tex, Dell, Sedd, Rob-Nic, Big Kev, Ice House, Mont, Roc, Maine, Yada, O, Davon, Smoke, Bryan, Lil' Red, Rome, Blac Rob, Twan, and Sweeney,) you know how we did it!! The memories of Liston 325 always remain, although our size has dwindled, our bond lasts forever. Thanks for all the wild and crazy memories. To all of my adopted sisters (Shan-Kelli, Renie, Lauren, Keya, J-Staton, Cyn, Trecie, L-beezo and the list goes on) I will always be there for you. It was an honor being your BIG brother. To everyone that supported me during my accident, thanks so much. Your support and prayers really played a huge part in my speedy recovery! I will never forget your thoughtfulness. Thanks to all faculty/staff and administrators that provided me with many good opportunities and support. To all of my many campus mentees' and the remaining classes, remember, "Excellence is no accident!" you all have the ability to strive for great things-work hard, play hard and you will reap many great things.

" If at first you don't secede, then try try again"
Sheleah Davidson

I, Talece Y. Hunter, leave every Political Science major and Pre-law minor a lot of patience and strength. Believe me; you will definitely need both for the second hardest major. Good Luck!!!

To my residents of GF right-side 1st floor, you kept me on a 24/7 shift. Now it's time for you to work another RA to death. Good luck with your remaining semesters.

Teammates; I, Drop Zone, could never leave you out. I will definitely miss the late nights in the hotel room, knowing that we had to get up early in the morning, going out to eat, and of course the bowling matches.

To all the organizations that I was a member/officer of (Tri-State, Student Christian Association, Future Business Leaders of America, Pre-Law, Political Science, and NAACP), I leave you with some encouragement. You will definitely need it to make all the deadlines.

To my most influential professors (Hoffman, Ogirri, Priest, Carter, White, and Sawyer) thanks for challenging me so much. I know that it will pay off in law school.

To my few college friends, Alisha, Iman, and Rachel, thanks for being there for me during my break-up. I will come back for your graduation in 2005. Also to all the members of the You Can Go To College Committee here at Smith, I hope that you can make it without me here because I am graduating. Good Luck!!!

God Bless You All.

I, Melissa J. Ingram first and foremost leave a special congratulations to all the graduating seniors from the Class of 2004...it's been real, and we made it!

Next, I leave the Presidential legacy to the next President of the Glorious Gamma Lambda Chapter of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority Inc. Continue the Legacy!

To all my line sisters of 2004...I leave all of our collegiate experiences we had in Gamma Lambda. Wherever our futures may take us, we will always have the bond of "Delta Land" that will never end!

To Lauren R. Davis A.K.A. "Jill Scott" I leave our many memories of our close friendship that began with being "Study Buddies" junior year. With a friendship that grew so close so quick, I can never forget the times we have shared. Whether we are near or far...we will always have the bond that started at JCSU! Oh yeah, thanks for showing me how "Philly girls go..." well ya know (ha!ha!) Love ya ...suite-mate of 112!

To "Corey Matthews" I leave our genuine friendship that was there no matter what...and I leave our lunches at "Showmars!" -Love Topanga

To the "Work-study Triad Crew", I leave our time of work-study in Student Activities...or was it really work-study?! (ha!ha!) Thanks for the good times!

To my friend of Honors College Suite C, I leave the "The Life and Times Of The Honors College" (ha!ha!) Memories I will always remember.

To all of JCSU...my time here will be a time in life I will never forget. Live on Dear Ole JCSU!!

I came, I saw, and I conquered. God bless the class of 2004.

To my dearest Johnson C. Smith University, I leave to you my positive attitude and willingness to grow and improve myself daily, Spiritually, intellectually and emotionally. I leave the campus ministry program my dedication, and commitment, which has contributed so much to my personal growth. I leave the business department my many question in class and my promptness. And Finally to my Friends and the rest of the University I leave to you my Prays that you will be successful in life and encourage young black high school students to attend college.

Marc L. Fuller

I Lauren R. Davis a warm hearted, open-minded and creative individual leave my last will and testament to my peers that have been there for me through trails and tribulations of my four years here at JCSU. The memories that I leave to others have a special place in my heart.

To Shannon and Renie my "Swaga sistas": I leave my loving spirit to your soul from Myers 2nd & 3rd floor to New Res 112, 114, to 108. I know when I go to swaga left you'll be right there. We have a friendship that will never end; even if you are in VA or another part of PA. They say when you go to college you gain your true life friends, and yes that's true. I always will have you too.

To Bridgette and Regina my "Inspiration leaders": I leave the memories of tears, laughter, fear and even frustration. Though my years here you two have been there to but a smile on my face. From the laughs in Myers kitchen to rides in the pimpet mobile; however it's been a true ride of a great friendship. The inspiration of you two will always be keep sake to my heart.

To Tiffany and Erika "2 Musketeers": When you think of "Southern Hospitality" I think of you two. The two of you express southern hospitality to the fullest. The thing that I will always remember about you two is that you're always KEEPIN IT REAL. When coming into suite 116, I knew I was in for a good laugh.

To Melissa "Miss Ltd": Where do I begin.....? I am leaving you the memories of a friendship that is filled with some loud laughter. Even though we have been friends for a short time, it seem like it has been for forever. From STATS class to the road trip to Philly with Shrek however; it's great to know that we end our journey through JCSU as such great friends

To Jonathon and Rashawn my "Southern Boys": I am leaving you some Northern Hospitality behind. When they say Rep your hood; I know you two will always be throwing up your "SC" signs.

To Rashanda "Starbucks Queen": I am leaving all my bright color sweaters and turtle necks to you.... You always have a reason to make someone very thankful of having you as friend. There will never be Starbucks Queen around like you. From the road trips to Temple Hills then off to PA, we always have something to look back on. Even though our stay in suite 129 was short, our friendship will always be forever.

To Jeremy and Marcus my "LC brothers": All I really can say is "Where did everyone go?" Even if just one of you two are gone (JCSU), I know the memories will always be around.

To Kim "Skim": I am leaving you a picture of my pink coach set, but knowing that everyone was going their separate ways, we ended up staying friends. With you I was learn something new everyday it seems. But what I was always learning from you I will always keep in mind.

To Terrika "Terri": I am leaving my math notes Thanks for always helping me out with my math classes.

To Leann "Ledezzy": To my freshman roommate, I am leaving memories about Myers 209. Since freshman year we have been always been friends. I know I could always count on you to listen and give advice

To Angelique "Angel": There was always a new story when it came to you, but they stories always made me laugh.

To Marc "Mr. Flirtatious" I am leaving you a winter coat... So bundle up, you know up NORTH it gets really cold.

To the CLASS OF 2004, we did it. Even though there were times when we complained and felt like not being here. We still strive to do our best and we did. So keep up the good work and good luck in the future.

I, Bridgette LaKiche Johnson, being of sound mind and body, would like to leave the following as my last will and testament to the Johnson C. Smith University family. To my parents, I thank you for believing in me and trusting me to make all of the right decisions. I could not ask for greater support. I love you two more than words can explain. To all of my professors (especially in the Business Department), I would like to thank you with sincerest gratitude for all of the knowledge that you have instilled in me. The sharing of your knowledge has enhanced my contribution to the world and has helped mold me into the productive young lady that I am. To my fellow Smithies that I will be leaving behind, I leave my patience to endure all trying times, because I know they will surely come. There will be times when you may want to throw in the towel but don't give up. Great things are in store for you; I believe this in my heart. To Kayla, Veronica, Starleigh and Ebonee, I leave my strength and wisdom to conquer all fears. There is nothing that you cannot do if you put your mind to it. Continue to hold it down for Hilly Hill-Roberts. We know that no one will be able to put it down better than us. To Trise, it was rough but it is all over now and we made it through. I love you girl! Good luck in everything that you do. To Regina and Lauren, we hung out together, laughed together, cried together and even starved together; you are my sisters. There were many times when we had to coach each other through difficult times, but look at us now. We are about to start our lives and go our separate ways, but be assured that you will never be forgotten. You two know we will not be waiting until the reunion. Always remember that my home is your home. I love you! To Jonathan, Jarvis and Rashawn, I love you all like my brothers. We came together, struggled together and are finally getting ready to depart. We made it; together. You all will always hold a special place in my heart. To eleven very special young ladies (you know who you are), times got rough but we had each others back through it all. Just remember that what God has for us is for us and no one can take it away. I will forever love you all! To Miss Margaret, we haven't known each other very long but you have left a lasting impression upon me. We share common interests and situations but we know that all control is out of our hands. Our day is coming girl, and when it does, what a wonderful one it will be. Continue to represent with me as two of South Carolina's finest. To Pimp Jackson and Delicious, I met you two in a mysterious way but I am thankful for you in my life. We did some things that may not be proud of but some times you just have to do what you have to do. We conquered it all. I will always be there for you. Tiffany, Erika, Kim and Tocarra; you are unique in your own ways. Your friendships will forever leave imprints in my heart. I love you all in your own unique way. To all of my SC people, continue to hold it down for the dirty, dirty. To the class of 2004, I would like to leave a profound statement that will forever live inside of me: "Hush, somebody is calling your name. What will you do?" It is now our time to make a difference. The world is not prepared for the changes and the impact that we are about to make. To anyone that I left out, please forgive me. Your name may not be here but it will forever be etched in my heart. I love you all and I wish you success in every one of your endeavors.

".....weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning." Psalms 30:5

May God Bless You All!!

CONGRATULATIONS GRADUATES!

Johnson C. Smith University, you cradled us in your arms for many years and now here we are – preparing to part ways, but before it is over we must give you thanks. When we were home sick you gave us comfort and provided this family that wiped away our tears. We thank you. On our first encounter, we thought that the knowledge being imparted was irrelevant, but now we look back and realize that you, Johnson C. Smith University, passed on a legacy of excellence. You called us “The Talented Tenth” and now your foresight has manifested. We thank you. Our relationship has grown and will never be replaced. Though we may move on the foundation has been laid and you, JCSU, provided the brick and mortar. We thank you. Though our time is up and as the sentiment rises we acknowledge you for all that you are – our home away from home for so long, our family that always kept us strong, with your knowledge we can never go wrong so we end our words with this line from a song...

Aundria S. Edwards

It seems like yesterday I graduated high school and set my sights here at Johnson C. Smith University. College has brought many wonderful memories, friendships, and happiness to my life. But I would like to thank my true friendships (Chrystal Montgomery, Shukura Clement, Joy Coleman, Cathy Merlu-Nye, and Joy Wright). You taught me how to laugh, have fun and party. Thanks for being there for me when I needed a shoulder to lean on.

To my family who has taught me how to be the independent, self-motivated, reliable and strong black princess that I am today. Without you college would NOT have been possible. I will always hold those family values with me as I go off into the REAL WORLD.

To my future husband DeMarcus Robinson, life has thrown us many curve balls but TOGETHER we were able to get through them. God put us in each others lives for a reason and together we can do anything.

To the class of 2004, it was a long hard and sometimes painful journey but we finally made it. Keep God first and anything is possible.

MOVING ON

~but~

Remembering the Past

Remembering ~ Suite 127, Bathroom feuds, trips to Chapel Hill, night visits to Bojangles & Jack n the Box, Atlanta road trips, H2O, Boxing nights, Spring Break in Florida and all the countless memories too crazy to list.

Looking back who would've known that these last four years would completely change our lives. Let's give thanks for all the memories. All the laughter, smiles and tears we've experienced we're lucky to have had each other. As we move forward in life we can take comfort in knowing we'll always have someone to call on ~ a true friend. As we move forward we would like to thank our family and friends who helped us accomplish our dreams. We thank God for his many blessings.

TO MY DAUGHTER

Every home should have a daughter,
for there's nothing like a girl
To keep the world around her in one continuous whirl.
From the moment she arrives on earth
and on through womanhood,
a daughter is a female
who is seldom understood.
One minute she is laughing,
the next she starts to cry-
Man just can't understand her and there's just no use to try.
She is soft and sweet and cuddly
but she's also wise and smart-
She's wondrous combination of mind and brain and heart...

And even in baby days
she's just a born coquette,
And anything she really wants
she manages to get,
For even at a tender age
she sues all her wiles,
And she can melt the hardest heart
with the sunshine of her smiles...
She starts out as a rosebud,
with her beauty unrevealed,
Then through a happy childhood
her petals are unsealed.
She's soon a sweet lovely woman graduate as the rosebud opens wide...
God sent her from above...And there would be no life
at all in this world without my darling daughter.

With all of my love,
Mother

In everything you do, put God first; and He will direct you and crown your efforts with success... Proverbs 3:6

A good woman knows God. She knows that with God the world is her playground, but without God she will just be played. A good woman does not live in fear of the future because of her past. Instead she understands that her life experiences are merely lessons, meant to bring her closer to self-knowledge and unconditional self-love. GIRL SMILE...YOU KNOW YOU HAVE IT GOING ON! Our Wonderful Daughter

From the time you were born, you have been precious to us and have brought us such joy. Your kindhearted ways, your gifts and your talents have made us as proud as can be. We see the path that you have made that is all your own: your hard earned wisdom, your soft innocence, your courage, compassion and unconditional goodness. We hope you know how very proud we will always be to have a daughter as wonderful as you. Deep in our hearts, we love you and wish you the very best everyday of your life. May God continue to bless you in your future endeavors and always remember we love you!

Proverbs 31: 10-31

Who can find a virtuous woman? for her price is far above rubies. The heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil. She will do him good and not evil all the days of her life. She is like the merchants' ships; she bringeth her food from afar. She riseth also while it is yet night, and giveth meat to her household, and a portion to her maidens. She considereth a field, and buyeth it; with the fruit of her hands she planteth a vineyard. She girdeth her loins with strength, and strengtheneth her arms. She stretcheth out her hand to the poor; yea, she reacheth forth her hands to the needy. Her husband is known in the gates, when he sitteth among the elders of the land. Strength and honour are her clothing; and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. Her children arise up, and call her blessed; her husband also, and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all. Favour is deceitful, and beauty is vain: but a woman that feareth the LORD, she shall be praised. Give her of the fruit of her hands; and let her own works praise her in the gates.

Had there been no difficulties and no thorns in the way,
You would not be where you are today.

Follow your instincts; that is where true wisdom lies.
Your ultimate goal is to do your very best and enjoy doing it.
Wishing you Blessings, Love, Luck, and Continued Success in all your future endeavors. We are proud of you and all of your accomplishments!!!

Love,
Mom, Dad, Kristina and Jamerio

Grandpa you inspired me to never give up, and to always hold my head high no matter what people may say! Thank You, I Love You Grandpa

2 My immediate family whom I love like no other! Thank you for showing me what a true family is Thank you for being the oldest that shows me how to live.

Thank you for the only brotherly love that you give, Thank you for another sister's advice, that helps me to be precise; for a dad's silliness that makes you cry. But most of all thank you GOD for a mother who believes when trusting me to pray on my knees that in the end with both succeed.

You wanted to go to college, so you dreamed to be a smithite, you crossed this campus everyday in hope that you might, well Grandma I have news 4 you, no longer do you to dream, want or cross this campus anymore cause from your 8th seed to her 3rd your dream has occurred! Now we "R" both Smithites, I love you Grandma!

From you I learned to stay in the game and always strive for a higher achievement! Thank you Love you always.

*"Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus."
Philippians 1:6*

"Let me tell you 'bout it!"

It's By God's Grace
Knowing what you do, believing
What you cannot see, dreaming to
Be all that you can be it's by God's grace you see me here today
Left high school wondering what tomorrow would hold, knowing I had to be bold, bold in my thinking, bold in by belief, bold in believing even when I could not see, the road, the way at times felt like I would stray
How did I get to where I am today?
The only thing I can say is
It's been by god's grace
Mercy is the twin that never leaves grace
Standing, so even when I did wrong
Mercy never left me alone.
Grace and Mercy Kept Me!

Special Thanks and Love to:
My God sent Parents,
Family and Friends.
May the Lord Bless and Keep
Each of You!!!
